A Summary Affidavit for the Case History for the Medical Malpractice Structured Settlement
Case for the Dosch twins, Travis Keith and Garrett Kirk.

TO:

December 6, 1978, Edis Ralene (Rain), Travis Keith and Garrett Kirk Dosch began an unending nightmare due to malpractice, both medical and judicial, that many others have also experienced, beginning for the Doschs with the botched delivery of twins and a botched medical malpractice case orchestrated for profit by Guardianship and Probate Courts and other agencies thereof.

September 20, 1985, Rain, mother of five sons, retired from architectural and medical careers at the time, not yet educated in law, was coerced into corporate fraud, by Cornelius P. Bahan, Esq., and threatened into accepting a grossly structured settlement. He refused to file suit for Rain's extensive damages. Garrett, the more traumatized twin received $5.3 million, $2000.00 monthly with 3% per annum increase, various lump sum payments over his lifetime and an order to support twin, Travis until 18 years of age. Travis received $1.5 million, $1,000.00 monthly, no annual increase originally stipulated and various lump sum payments over his lifetime starting at 18 years of age. The intent of the structuring from the very onset was: a small monthly living annuity to the twins, leaving the majority of the estate for working capital for insurance and bonding companies, courts, attorneys, C.P.As, judges, public guardians, government agencies, etc., eventually depleting the entire estate, leaving the twins' needs to be provided by taxpayers.

Due to the over-all value of the estate, the twins could not qualify for S.S.I., etc., though $2,000.00 monthly did not provide for the needs of handicapped twins. Their mother's now ended medical career qualified her to provide most of their medical, therapy and home schooling, while Shriner's Children's Hospitals provided surgeries, braces and special equipment. Catholic Charities, their native American family and tribes provided monetary support and then-Councilman, Steven Miller of Nevada provided legal and other support. Large medical, dental and other expenses were charged to credit cards which were to be paid with the lump sum payments.

May 8, 1986, Letters of Guardianship for Person and Estate for both twins with a surety bond was received, but omitted was "from minority through majority" as was strongly stipulated in the original documentation, now deleted in an altered version.

In 1996, the twins being 18 years of age, coercion began by Integrity Life Insurance Company, Guardianship Court and others for Rain to obtain Letters of Adult Guardianship for the twins or the monthly annuity would be withheld. Rain refused, as court adult guardianship would give the court contract control over the mother/guardian's person, the twins' persons and the estates thereof, including the twins' medical malpractice settlement.

July 29, 1999, at 21 years of age, the twins were both evaluated and deemed incompetent by Dr. Louise Sherk, J.D., MD. Letters of Adult Guardianship without a surety bond for both twins was received. An unbonded settlement can be stolen without recourse.

February 26, 2003, at 24 years of age, Dr. Louise Sherk, J.D., MD., deemed Travis Keith's person competent, though the court would guard his estate for him, eventually depleting it with court ordered fees, etc., leaving taxpayers to pay for future care.

December 6, 2003, at 25 years of age, Travis and Garrett each received $25,000.00 in a lump sum payment for past and present medical, dental and other expenses charged to credit cards. Garrett's was paid towards these, but Travis' physical self, his lump sum payment and his structured settlement future annuities were seized by Guardianship Court to be depleted as stated above. Attorneys file bankruptcy rather than pay debt owed, leaving the debt paid by taxpayers; or in this case Garrett Kirk Dosch and mother/quardian.

April 8, 2003, a Stipulation and Order was received by Rain, Integrity Life Insurance Company and Bank of America with a forged signature, stating Travis' person and estate were no longer under guardianship. The court at this time also attempted to extort both real and personal property from a Family Living Trust. To date they have not followed through, but easily could, as they can disregard Wills, Trusts, human rights, etc. when seizing lucrative estates fraudulently. Travis had no Living Trust at the time. His case is sealed. He is a missing handicapped adult.

October 11, 2004, several Stipulations and Orders were received by all involved. Garrett's person was to remain under the guardianship of his mother, his estate under court guardianship unless Rain agreed to sign the Stipulation and Orders. Refusing to sign due to the financial obligations and many legal ramifications for the Dosch twins, the court clerk was ordered to sign on Rain's behalf. Rain was removed as guardian of the estate. Garrett was ordered a Court Imposed Management Trust at the cost of $5,000.00 plus lump sum and monthly fees to court appointed attorneys, C.P.A.s, etc., though he has an Irrevocable Living Trust of his own and his own financial advisor, Francis Howard, C.P.A., and Trust attorney, Jeffrey Burr and Associates. Also for two years the following monthly payments were to be made from Garrett's monthly annuity towards enormous attorney and other fees: $2,500.00 to himself for living expenses and past monthly obligations of the Dosch twins, $862.22 attorney fees, $250.00 C.P.A./Trustee fees and a $300.00 stipend, withheld until April 2007 to his mother/guardian, qualified to give special education and medical care. As stated the specified payments were to continue for two years adjusting with Garrett's annual increase but which continue to date many years later. The Doschs, their bank, and many others concerned never received court notices regarding the Court Management Trust or copies or accountings thereof.

This gives the courts and their constituents control without oversight, accountability or transparency for their enormous fees, low interest loans to themselves, investments, etc. It keeps the majority of the Dosch estate for the judicial theft and prevents the natural mother since December 6, 1978, guardian since May 8, 1986, from paying past, present and future expenses. As aforementioned the structured monthly annuity was also reduced to a small monthly living allowance eliminating funds for hiring investigators, legal help of any kind, searching for Garrett's missing twin, etc.

December 6, 2008, at 30 years of age, Travis and Garrett each received $50.000.00 in lump sum payments, the second of many to be made over their lifetimes, all of which will be seized by Guardianship Court and others. Garrett presently lives 24/7 with fear of the plight for himself, his missing twin, family members, pets, his and his twin's structured settlement, thousands of other victims of this fraud and all he holds dear. His case is sealed, court videos and transcriptions added, deleted or altered to hide the judicial fraud of Guardianship Court and others. Many years of verifiable atrocities were edited from the Dosch files for this summary affidavit requested by on-line websites and media profiling thousands of victims of the judicial system, unbeknown to the American people.

A recent update on Travis Keith Dosch reveals he is on the street without his settlement money having to survive by any means. This has resulted in numerous phone calls and correspondence to his mother. Though challenged, he is cunning and stays on the constant move. Reportedly, Travis obtains financial aid, etc., by using false I.D. and posing as a firefighter, medical technician, security guard, law enforcement, military, etc. Pleas for help to authorities from his victims, friends and family have proven futile. Travis has been detained by law enforcement several known times and released. The general consensus is that there is intervention from the court and their constituents to prevent his incriminating testimony and alliance with those on the side of good. This is accomplished by case, tracking and code numbers on the flyers and paperwork.

As previously demonstrated and well documented, the structuring of the Dosch twins' structured settlement was calculated to manage the financial impact from medical malpractice to both twins with their intertwined medical and special needs obligations from birth over their lifetimes; obligations which, since a 2004 Stipulation and Order and court seizure, have been left for twin Garrett and his mother/guardian to pay with a drastically reduced monthly annuity and no lump sum payments. The reduced annuity was $2,500.00 monthly, $30,000.00 annually with a stipend of $300.00 monthly, $3600.00 annually to the twins' mother/guardian. Both the reduced annuity and the stipend had to be reimbursed to Garrett by family and organizations due to the obligations Garrett had to pay, as the collateral for credit was the structured settlement and credit was critical for the twins' medical and special needs; credit which is now ruined. Due to the depressed US and global economy the total annuity can no longer be reimbursed in full and drastic cuts had to be made to Garrett's living expenses.

The obligations are presently $1,166.42 monthly, $13,997.04 annually, leaving Garrett $1,633.58 monthly, $19,602.96 annually, for his needs and the court $1,387.43 monthly, $16,649.16 annually, along with the lump sum payments for their needs. The monthly annuity is to be electronically deposited into Garrett's checking account on the sixth of the month, his birth date. Instead it is mailed, arriving on the eleventh to the sixteenth of the month making payment of obligations by due date difficult and creating extra travel time and inconvenience, as Garrett and his mother/guardian reside in rural Nevada without residential mail delivery. Also the many bank benefits from electronic deposits have been lost.

Joshua Gottesman, C.P.A. signed the 2004 Stipulation and Order against the advice of his then C.P.A. partner, Gregory Bruce, the Dosch family and their C.P.A. financial advisor, Francis Howard, C.P.A. The general consensus is that it was signed for self gain, knowing full well from the financial records it would devastate Garrett's life in every way, his medical, education, and upcoming surgery to improve his poor speech. Little did Joshua Gottesman know that when he put the nails in Garrett's coffin he also put the nails in his own.

In a letter dated December 8, 2011, Joshua stated he had accidentally mailed too much money for the month of November, 2011 to Garrett, but stated he could keep it for an early birthday present; a birthday present of his own money. Apparently after seven years of a drastically reduced annuity, of which supposedly was to be for two years, Garrett now has received a monthly increase of $250.00 for a monthly total of $2,750.00. He should be receiving $4,313.05 according to the structuring so as to pay past medical bills and present and future special needs. As of November 8, 2012, the Dosch mother/guardian received a $50.00 raise for a total stipend of $350.00 monthly which has always been used to pay towards the twins' past bills.

As of December 6, 2012, unaccounted for since 2004 is: $125,000.00 in lump sum payments along with the reduced monthly annuity balances to Garrett Kirk, Garrett's missing twin, Travis Keith and his $150,000.00 in lump sum payments and his monthly annuities. As stated since the inception of the 2004 court seizure there have been no annual accountings to Garrett or his mother/guardian as to the amount, location or availability for use by Garrett of the settlement funds. This case, along with thousands of others, has achieved global investigation due to the internet and websites profiling judicial, probate and guardianship fraud. R.I.C.O. cases are no longer admissible in U.S. Courts. At present there is no known righteous power on earth that can bring to justice the for profit courts of CORPORATE AMERICA.

In 2012, the victims of judicial crime in Nevada learned from the internet and other sources that after years of both judicial and civil crime, Judge Steven Jones has been indicted and is under house arrest and further investigation. Being the judge for the Dosch twins' case, he ignored the Dosch Family Trust, twin Garrett's Irrevocable Living Trust and the Dosch U.C.C. Financial Statement filed with the Nevada Secretary of State. He seized the Dosch twins' medical malpractice settlement for a Court Ordered Management Trust. This he did, not only to steal the estate as he orchestrated, but to prevent the guardianship and the settlement from being transferred from the Clark County Court to the Nye County Court, as the Dosch twins have resided in Nye County since 1990. One of the most difficult tasks for the many victims is to step back and allow the years of investigation to proceed.

To add insult to injury; due to the ten year fight against Guardianship Court by the Dosch family, a court attorney/psychiatrist, Louise G. Sherk, M.D., J.D., without an evaluation, diagnosed Edis Ralene (Rain) Dosch, mother/guardian of the Dosch twins as having Munchausen Syndrome, a syndrome in which one or both parents claim their children have illnesses preventing them from ever leaving them. This also prevents the family from having financial resources with which to fight the corrupt court.

RICO

Syndicated Court Cases, Judges, Attorneys, Guardian Ad Litems, Certified Public Accountants and Special Court Appointments for the Dosch Twins, Travis Keith and Garrett Kirk, their persons, estates and medical malpractice settlements.

Note: The public records for the Dosch cases have been altered, deleted, omitted and sealed in an attempt to cover up the fraud. The Freedom of Information Act, American Civil Liberties Union, disability and similar organizations do not apply here, or so they claim. Thus, demonstrating the necessity for the RICO Act (Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organization Act) to be invoked for the Dosch case and thousands of victims of Guardianship, judicial abuse and fraud.

Plaintiffs' History December 1978 to September 1986:

Preparations for suit against Martin Luther Medical Center and John P. Bell began within days of the Dosch twins' delivery, December 6, 1978, on behalf of the twins and their mother, or so it was assumed. The fraud began at the onset by the attorneys for both sides, companies for insurance, bonding, structured settlements, etc., and their cronies.

The syndicate of the Superior Court of California, County of Orange, 700 Civic Center Drive West, Santa Ana, CA 92702, (714) 834-2200, CASE NO. 36-16-35, syndics as follows: Judge Jerrold S. Oliver, unlisted profit unknown. Judge Ralph Drummond, Guardian Ad Litem, refused to substitute out of case or release funds, retired to San Diego County, unlisted, fee approximately $4,000.00, profit unknown. Plaintiff's attorney, Cornelius Bahan, Esq., Inc. CA. BAR NO. 53095, 4675 McArthur Court, Suite 1200, Newport Beach, CA 92660, (949) 622-0200, fee, MICRA scale, $88,666.00 plus $30,000.00 costs, profit unknown.

September 20, 1985, the Dosch family discovered suit had not been filed for the mother, the scheduled trial would not proceed and they would have to accept the settlement given them by Cornelius Bahan, esq., as in his words, "I will fix it so you don't get anything" and his fees and other bills were mounting. The settlement was handled through The Structured Settlement Company, 3420 Ocean Park Blvd. Suite 3000, Santa Monica, CA. 90404, (213) 452-6600. Cornelius Bahan and Ralph Drummond then contacted cronies in California, as well as Nevada syndics, as follows:

- 1. Louis Shaffer, Esq., unlisted, Orange, CA. fee unknown, profit unknown.
- John F. Deily, Esq., CA BAR NO. 93687, Gunderson, Reynolds and Gunderson, 2351 Paseo De Valencia, Suite 115, Laguna Hills, CA 92653, (949) 699-6100, fee unknown, profit unknown.
- 3. David Goldwater, Esq., NV BAR NO. 1612, 302 E. Carson, Suite 1000, Las Vegas, NV 90101, (702) 796-5644, fee unknown, profit unknown.
- Thomas Stark, Esq., NV BAR NO. 1022, 302 E.Carson, Suite 1000, Las Vegas, NV 90101, (702) 382-5036, fee unknown, profit unknown.
- Patricia Trent, Esq., Ltd., NV BAR NO. 1578, Accountant, Carma Manring, formerly Shanner and Trent, 8367 W. Flamingo Road, Las Vegas, NV 89147, (702) 382-2210, attempted Guardian Ad Litem, fee approximately $4,000.00 profit unknown.

Plaintiffs' History September 1986 to September 2007:

The legal fraud and wrangling of over seven years coupled with severe trauma and no settlement funds caused Bill Dosch's mental and physical health to deteriorate. In 1986, Ralene was forced to divorce Bill in order to obtain formal general guardianship over the Dosch twins from minority though majority to prevent exploitation from Social Services and so on. Ralene Dosch's attorney for the divorce and guardianship of the twins was Matthew Callister, Esq., NV BAR NO. 1396, Callister and Reynolds, 823 S. Las Vegas Blvd., Las Vegas, NV 89101; (702) 385-3343; fee unknown, profit unknown. Due to the fraud involving the aforementioned attorneys, Ralene Dosch contacted the Shriners, who provided medical care for the Dosch twins until 21 years of age due to their grossly structured Settlements and was referred to Las Vegas City Councilman, Steven Miller and Donald R. Davidson, III, Esq., CA BAR NO. 127472, NV BAR NO. 879, 28202 Cavot Road, Suite 300, Laguna Niguel, CA 92677; (949) 365-7080. Both of whom did pro bono advocating and legal counseling for families, children and disability organizations, etc. Steven Miller is presently an investigative journalist in Las Vegas, Nevada, unlisted.

Together, along with Eighth District Judicial Court Judge, Thomas A. Foley, deceased, they were able to secure the Formal General Guardianship from Minority through Majority, with summary accountings for the Dosch twins' persons and estates. Also, transfer the settlement funds from Orange County, California to Clark County, Nevada, Eighth Judicial District Court, State of Nevada, in and for the County of Clark, Family Division, CASE NO. G12166, structured settlement company, Integrity Life Insurance Company, 515 W. Market Street, Louisville, KY 40202-3319, (800) 325-8583.

In 1996 and 1997, the twins, being 18 and 19 years of age, evaluations from the twins' doctors were requested by Integrity Life Insurance Company. December 28, 1998, after the twins 20th birthday, December 6, 1998, Ralene Dosch received a letter from Eighth Judicial District Court Family Division, Family Courts and Services Center of Nevada, the County of Clark, Guardianship/Discovery from Jennifer L. Henry, Commissioner, stating the twins were over 18 years of age and Ralene Dosch would have to petition the Court to terminate the current quardianship and obtain court ordered adult quardianship over the twins. Ralene Dosch retained Thomas M. Burns, Esq., NV BAR NO. 757, 912 N. Eastern Avenue, Las Vegas, NV 89101, (702) 649-4276, fee approximately $2,500.00, profit unknown. Judge William O. Voy and a court attorney/psychologist interviewed the Dosch twins, reviewed their medical records, ordered: adult quardianship, a yearly accounting and report of person for each twin; lump sum payments be deposited into a blocked account. Integrity Insurance Company be noticed, assignment of CASE NO. G 20357 and the fraud began again.

In 2003, Ralene Dosch, Integrity Life Insurance Company and Bank of America received a Court Stipulation and Order of April 8, 2003 with a forged signature for Thomas M. Burns, Esq., after he had been substituted out of the Dosch case. Ralene Dosch retained Mont E. Tanner, Esq., NV BAR NO. 4433, 2920 E. Flamingo Road, Suite G, Las Vegas, NV 89121, (702) 369-9614, fee approximately $2,500.00, profit unknown. The Stipulation and Order was orchestrated by Commissioner Jennifer L. Henry and the Guardianship Court attorneys and executed by Shelly D. Krohn, Esq., NV BAR NO. 5040, Katherin Mazzeo, Esq., NV BAR NO. 8179, Dara Goldsmith, Esq., NV BAR NO. 4270, Goldsmith and Guymon, 20255 N. Village Center Circle, Las Vegas, NV 89734, (702) 873-9500. Shelly D. Krohn was formerly with Bolick, McBeath, Tanner and Boyer. It is unknown if the Tanner in that office was the same. Both Mont Tanner and Ralene Dosch were sanctioned $5,000.00 each. The court appointed attorneys of Goldsmith and Guymon were instrumental in the disappearance of twin, Travis Keith Dosch in 2002 at 24 years of age. They appear currently to be Special Limited Guardians for his person and estate. Travis was evaluated and apparently brain washed by the court attorney, psychiatrist, Louise G. Sherk, M.D., J.D., Inc. NV Bar NO. none, CA BAR NO. none, NV. M.D. not listed; CA. MD. Not listed; P.O. Box 370687, Las Vegas, NV 89137, (702) 248-4198; 3830 Ocean Birch Drive, Corona Del Mar, CA. 92625. The aforementioned have endangered a guarded adult, as well as society if Travis Dosch is not counseled and medicated. Fees for the above are unknown, profit unknown, the meter is running to date, they are noticed of all activity.

Without full disclosure, Ralene Dosch retained the following syndics:

David C. Amesbury, Esq., NV BAR NO. 3889, Amesbury and Schutt, 703 S. 8th Street, Las Vegas, NV 89101, (702) 385-5570, apparent shill for Clark County Public Guardian's Office and Jared Shafer, Esq., Public Guardian/Administrator/Private Guardian, fee $5,0000.00 plus unknown attorney liens, profit unknown, no retainer refund.

Grenville Pridham, Esq., NV BAR NO. 2775, 1611 E. Charleston Blvd., Suit 3, Las Vegas, NV 89104; (702) 614-3388, formerly with the State of Nevada Attorney General's Office, apparent shill as above mentioned, fee $6,000.00 plus unknown attorney liens, profit unknown, no retainer refund.

Louis M. Minicozzi, Esq., NV BAR NO. 5068, 333 N. Rancho Drive, Suite 805, Las Vegas, NV 89106; (702) 684-4950, signed Court Stipulation and Order of October 13, 2004, fee approximately $3,000.00, profit unknown, no retainer refund.

Jeffrey L. Burr, J.D. C.P.A. NV BAR NO. 164, also AZ, CA, UT, 445 S. Pecos Rd., Las Vegas, NV 89121, (702) 453-4455, for review of the Garrett Kirk Dosch Irrevocable Living Trust including Special Needs Clause, written by the family paralegal, fee $360.00., profit unknown.

Ralene Dosch retained pro bono Francis Howard, C.P.A., Ovist and Howard, C.P.A.s and Consultants, 7 Commerce Center Drive, Site A., Henderson, NV 89014, (702) 456-1300; to review Guardian, Ralene Dosch's accountings and scrutinize court appointed accountant, Joshua A. Gottesman, C.P.A., 7473 W. Lake Mead Blvd., Suite 100, Las Vegas, NV 89128, (702) 461-2587, Accounting fee: $200.00 monthly plus costs, complete control of Garrett Kirk's settlement estate including the power to make loans and investments, Trustee of the Garrett Kirk Dosch Court Imposed Management Trust. Trustee fee: $50.00 monthly plus costs, profit unknown, meter is currently running to date, noticed of all Court/Attorney activity. The highly regarded Francis Howard, C.P.A. has been court eliminated from the Dosch case.

Ralene Dosch has interviewed approximately twenty more attorneys throughout Las Vegas, Nevada and the United States, other than the aforementioned, as well as paid them for relevant legal services to get help for the Dosch twins and the organizations fighting the organized crime called guardianship/conservatorship under the guise of Guardianship Court and National Guardianship Association.

The syndicate of the Eighth Judicial District Court, State of Nevada, in and for the County of Clark, Family Division, Family Courts and Services Center, 601
